To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing you on behalf of my colleague, Mr. Rob Mullins who is traveling around the world promoting musical excellence as a cultural exchange. Mr. Mullins is a specialist in jazz, popular, rock, R&B, and other types of American music. He is an internationally published book author, and runs the most successful of the Los Angeles CA private music studios. He is also a talented pianist and keyboardist at the level of Keith Jarret, Chick Corea, McCoy Tyner, and other contemporaries of his.

I wish to encourage you to speak with Mr. Mullins about bringing his educational expertise to your country and school system in order to increase the musical understanding of your artistic community. His educational programs are innovative and modern and supplant much of the previous traditional learning taught in our school systems in America.

I highly recommend Mr. Mullins. For further contact, I can be reached at the above email and phone number. Mr. Mullins can be reached via his website at www.planetmullins.com
